

Fact Sheet

STARS - Scottish Training for Alcohol Retailers and Sellers

Overview

Any business in Scotland licensed to sell alcohol—whether a pub, retailer, nightclub, café, restaurant, hotel, or sports venue—is legally required to ensure staff receive approved training. This online course provides Scottish based alcohol retail and serving staff with the essential knowledge and, upon completion, the certification needed to legally sell and serve alcohol.

Duration:
2 hours

Assessment:
Multiple-choice questions

Price:
£5.00

Certificate:
Yes – Highfield
Completion Certificate

Areas covered

- Scottish licensing law
- Licence types and the responsibilities of licence holders
- Licensing standards officers
- Constraints and requirements of premises licenses
- Protection of children and young persons
- Responsible practices in the retail of alcohol

Who is it aimed at?

This course is for anyone in Scotland who sells or serves alcohol and needs to meet the legal certification requirements.

